Applications are sought for the position of

Chaplain

The Northern Territory Christian Schools Association operates eight schools and colleges in the NT. Three of these schools are in the Greater Darwin Region – Litchfield Christian School, Coolalinga (140 students); Palmerston Christian School, Palmerston (250 students) and Marrara Christian College, Marrara (600 students). One of them is in the Outer Darwin Region near Litchfield National Park – Woolaning Homeland Christian College (60 students). Like all NTCSA schools they are committed to partnering with parents to provide a quality education from a Biblical perspective. While each school has their own unique character they work closely together. As part of this cooperation they will be sharing a chaplain.

We are looking for a suitably qualified person to fill the role of Chaplain, on either a full-time basis or part-time basis. Accordingly this role can be pertaining to one or more schools. This position is grant-funded to the end of the 2011 school year.

The Chaplain’s role will include an active involvement with students through involvement in schools curricula and extracurricular programs. The aim is to build relationships and know students well enough to be in a position to speak into their lives at key times or offer pastoral care when necessary.

A duty statement and application form can be downloaded from this website or by contacting the office (details below).

For further information please contact Debra Twartz on 8920 4355 or John Metcalfe on 8920 2000.

Position commences 11 April 2011 or as negotiated

Applications close on 4 April 2011
